What clients said

“On numerous occasions he has demonstrated his commitment by recommending the best course of action for the company, where this was not necessarily the most profitable solution for his firm.”

“Eduardo is a very practical person. He tends to resolve issues by going to the root of the problem and finding solutions at an administrative level, rather than spending hours and hours on litigation.”

“Eduardo is capable of seeing the bigger picture. He can provide advice for a multinational company that meets the group’s overall objectives and statutory obligations.”

“He is always conscious of the fact that the advice being given may have implications for the group outside Brazil, and he ensures that these implications are given proper consideration.”
