

EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

FOURTH SECTION

CASE OF MCHUGH AND OTHERS v. THE UNITED KINGDOM

(Application no. 51987/08 and 1,014 others - see list appended)

JUDGMENT

STRASBOURG

10 February 2015

This judgment is final but it may be subject to editorial revision.

In the case of McHugh and Others v. the United Kingdom,

The European Court of Human Rights (Fourth Section), sitting as a Committee composed of:

Päivi Hirvelä, President,

Nona Tsotsoria,

Faris Vehabović, judges,

and Fatoş Aracı, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having deliberated in private on 20 January 2015,

Delivers the following judgment, which was adopted on that date:

PROCEDURE

1. The case originated in 1,015 applications against the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland lodged with the Court under Article 34 of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (“the Convention”). A full list of the applicants and their legal representatives, if applicable, is set out in the appendix.

2. The United Kingdom Government (“the Government”) were represented by their Agent, Ms A. Sornarajah, of the Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

3. On 22 September 2014 the applications were communicated to the respondent Government.

4. Written observations were received from the Government and just satisfaction claims were received from a number of the applicants.

THE FACTS

I. THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE CASE

5. The applicants were all incarcerated at the relevant time following criminal convictions for a variety of offences. They were automatically prevented from voting, pursuant to primary legislation, in one or more of the following elections: elections to the European Parliament on 4 June 2009; the parliamentary election on 6 May 2010; and elections to the Scottish Parliament, the Welsh Assembly or the Northern Irish Assembly on 5 May 2011 (for further details see the appended table).

II. RELEVANT DOMESTIC LAW AND PRACTICE

6. The relevant domestic law and practice is set out in Hirst v. the United Kingdom (no. 2) [GC], no. 74025/01, ECHR 2005-IX; Greens and M.T. v. the United Kingdom, nos. 60041/08 and 60054/08, ECHR 2010 (extracts); McLean and Cole v. the United Kingdom (dec.), nos. 12626/13 and 2522/12, 11 June 2013; and Firth and Others v. the United Kingdom, nos. 47784/09, 47806/09, 47812/09, 47818/09, 47829/09, 49001/09, 49007/09, 49018/09, 49033/09 and 49036/09, 12 August 2014.

THE LAW

I. JOINDER

7. Given their similar factual and legal background, the Court decides that the applications should be joined pursuant to Rule 42 § 1 of the Rules of Court.

II. ALLEGED VIOLATION OF ARTICLE 3 OF PROTOCOL No. 1 TO THE CONVENTION

8. The applicants complained that they were prevented from voting in elections (see paragraph 5 above). They relied on Article 3 of Protocol No. 1 to the Convention, which reads as follows:

“The High Contracting Parties undertake to hold free elections at reasonable intervals by secret ballot, under conditions which will ensure the free expression of the opinion of the people in the choice of the legislature.”

A. Admissibility

9. The Court notes that the applications are not manifestly ill-founded within the meaning of Article 35 § 3 (a) of the Convention. It further notes that they are not inadmissible on any other grounds. They must therefore be declared admissible.

B. Merits

10. The Court has found that the statutory ban on prisoners voting in elections was, by reason of its blanket character, incompatible with Article 3 of Protocol No. 1 to the Convention (see Hirst (No. 2), cited above, § 82; and Greens and M.T., cited above, §§ 78-79). In Greens and M.T. it indicated that some legislative amendment would be required in order to render the electoral law compatible with the requirements of the Convention (see § 112 of the Court's judgment). The Government subsequently published a draft bill which underwent parliamentary scrutiny by a joint committee of both Houses of Parliament. The committee's report, published in December 2013, made recommendations as to suitable legislative amendments to be enacted and the appropriate timetable for enactment (see Firth and Others, cited above, § 14).

11. Given that the impugned legislation remains unamended, the Court cannot but conclude that, as in Hirst (no. 2), Greens and M.T. and Firth and Others, and for the same reasons, there has been a violation of Article 3 of Protocol No. 1 in the applicants' case.

III. APPLICATION OF ARTICLE 41 OF THE CONVENTION

12. Article 41 of the Convention provides:

“If the Court finds that there has been a violation of the Convention or the Protocols thereto, and if the internal law of the High Contracting Party concerned allows only partial reparation to be made, the Court shall, if necessary, afford just satisfaction to the injured party.”

13. Some of the applicants claimed non-pecuniary damage and costs and expenses. As regards legal costs, they argued, variously, that since their cases were lodged before the Court's judgment in Greens and M.T., it was unfair to refuse legal costs; that costs incurred in domestic proceedings should be awarded; that postage costs should be awarded; and that legal assistance was required to lodge the cases and consider the appropriate response to the communication of the cases, and in particular the implications of Firth and Others.

14. The Court does not consider that applicants who lodged their applications before its judgment in Greens and M.T. should be entitled to legal costs. It has already explained in its judgment in Firth and Others (cited above, § 21) why it does not agree that legal assistance was required to lodge an application. Further, in its Greens and M.T. judgment, the Court explained that the award made in respect of costs in that case was limited to the proceedings before it and reflected the fact that extensive written submissions had been lodged in the context of the written proceedings in the case. By contrast, the present cases were processed by the Court under a simplified procedure and, following the Firth and Others judgment, the Court's approach to such follow-up cases was clear. In particular, the Court does not accept that there was any need for legal assistance to consider the implications of the Firth and Others judgment, since that judgment was both concise and unambiguous.

15. In so far as some applicants claimed the costs of domestic court proceedings, adequate vouching has not been provided showing that court fees or legal costs were charged or paid. The claims are accordingly unsubstantiated.

16. Finally, while the Court accepts that some minor costs must have been incurred in purchasing envelopes and postage stamps, it does not consider it “necessary”, within the meaning of Article 41, to make any award in respect of these costs in the present applications.

17. In conclusion, as in Firth and Others (cited above, § 18) and for the same reasons, in the present case the Court concludes that the finding of a violation constitutes sufficient just satisfaction for any non-pecuniary damage sustained by the applicants. Further, for the reasons set out in paragraphs 14-16 above and in Firth and Others (cited above, § 20-22), the Court declines to make any award in respect of costs and expenses.

FOR THESE REASONS, THE COURT, UNANIMOUSLY,

1. Decides to join the applications;
2. Declares the applications admissible;
3. Holds that there has been a violation of Article 3 of Protocol No. 1 to the Convention;
4. Holds that the finding of a violation constitutes in itself sufficient just satisfaction for any non-pecuniary damage sustained by the applicants;
5. Dismisses the remainder of the applicants’ claim for just satisfaction.

Done in English, and notified in writing on 10 February 2015, pursuant to Rule 77 §§ 2 and 3 of the Rules of Court.
